That was so enjoyable to watch 🤘

Jonathan, you were almost right! To give credit where credit is due, Pakweight was coined by an old high school friend of mine, Collin Kruger, who didn't skate at all. However, I don't think it got further than being sprayed on a couple walls under bridges in P-Town until I offered it to the fellas during our Randburg days. I want to say that the desire to have a crew name was heavily inspired by, you guys will remember this well, Alon Skuy's Corporation Of Rude Perverted Skaters (C.O.R.P.S) but it was so long ago I can't remember which came first. I feel like Frank nailed the timeline there. I remember 24 (Garrett Pieters) drawing some insane logos using the acronym I'll never forget, PWC, while we spent a ludicrous amount of hours playing Tony Hawk on PlayStation....at the "Crack Flat." I remember that mattress well. And let the records show, that Jackals room in that spot was probably one of the most mysterious spaces on the planet at the time. Mind you, the ever elusive Ella is mystery personified. What a time man!

Thanks for this boys. Excellent stuff.

KEEP IT ROLL

On the 4th of October 2001 we lost a roller, our good friend Gazza Cartwright, in a tragic motorbike accident. But we will not be deterred. In loving memory of Gaz, who was always down with the streets, we will be hosting South Africa's first ever REAL STREET competition. Named the GAZZA CARTWRIGHT KEEP IT ROLL, this competition is open to any rollerblader that wants to enter, FREE ENTRY, in an effort to UNITE south african rollerblading where it belongs : in the streets!

KEEP IT ROLL will take place on Sunday the 2nd of December 2001 at four spots in JHB town. We are planning to start at 12:00 (noon) at the standard bank on the corner of Simmonds and Fox streets, JHB. The comp will progress from there, the format being an open session for the entire day with ONE WINNER chosen at the end by judges Byron Hambly and Frank Joubert. Do not be intimidated, we are trying to get as many south african rollers together in order to have the illest street session ever, no ulterior motives, no corporate sponsors, just real skaters and skater owned companies involved!! The prizes will consist of clothing donated by these companies as well as a large CASH prize to be announced soon!!
